HEAD COACH
BURKE HERMANN
Years: 1916, 1916-17 & 1919-32 (15)
Record: 148-73 (.669)

Burke M. "Dutch" Hermann, Penn State's first basketball coach, retired in 1956, after a nearly 50-year affiliation with the University. A 1912 Penn State graduate, Hermann guided the Nittany Lions from 1916 until 1932, with the exception of two years of service as a lieutenant during World War I. The team did not have a coach in 1918, however; Hugo Bezdek served as coach in 1919. Hermann also served as freshman football coach during those years.

Hermann, who hailed from Middleburg, Pa., lettered four years in basketball, served as captain in 1910 and lettered as a football player in 1911. He compiled a record of 148-73 during 15 seasons as head basketball coach. Hermann's teams were especially dominating over a six-year period from the start of the 1919-20 season through the '24-25 season. The Lions were 73-13 during that stretch and, in 1921, outscored their opponents by a two-to-one margin.

As a professor of history, Hermann served on Penn State's Athletic Advisory Board for many years. He was awarded the Lion's Paw Medal by that organization's Alumni Association in 1968. Hermann died in 1977.

HEAD COACH
HUGO BEZDEK
Year: 1919 (1)
Record: 11-2 (.846)

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, earned numerous accolades as Penn State's football coach from 1918-29. He also served as athletic director from 1918-36, and directed the basketball team for one season (1919) while then-head coach Burke Hermann served during WWI.

Bezdek's 1919 Penn State team went 11-2 and finished the year with eight straight wins.

As athletic director, Bezdek initiated fund raising in 1918 to build Rec Hall and 10 years later the building was constructed for $572,260.

Bezdek gained All-America status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and a second baseman on the baseball team. His collegiate coaching experience included head football coaching jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl, and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates major league baseball club (1917-19).

Bezdek, who died in 1952, posted a 65-30-11 record during 12 seasons as head football coach at Penn State. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

Record: 29-28 (.509)

A 1922 graduate of the University of Oregon, Earl "Spike" Leslie coached the Penn State basketball team for four seasons from 1933-36. A three-year football letterman at Oregon (1919-21), he was named to the Pacific Coast Conference first team as a tackle in 1920. Leslie earned his master's degree from Columbia.

Despite reduced schedules in 1933 and 1934, Leslie's first two teams posted winning records. His 1934-35 outfit raced out to an 8-3 start, before dropping its final six games. In 1935-36, Penn State joined the "fast" Eastern Intercollegiate Conference and went 0-10, 6-11 overall.

Highlights during Leslie's tenure included four straight wins over Army and a rare road win at Pennsylvania. He achieved a composite mark of 29-28.

Leslie returned to Oregon as a teacher and coach at Coquille High School, southwest of Eugene. He remained in that capacity until he died on Oct. 12, 1957. The Coquille football stadium is named in his honor.

HEAD COACH
JOHN LAWTHER
Years: 1937-49 (13)
Record: 150-93 (.617)
NCAA tournament: 1-1

Raised on a farm in Carroll County, Ohio, John Lawther earned national recognition as one of the leading proponents of zone defenses during 23 seasons as a coach at Westminster College and Penn State.

A 1919 Westminster graduate, Dr. Lawther retired from the Penn State faculty in 1965 following a long and distinguished career in secondary and higher education. As basketball coach from 1937 until 1949, he compiled a 150-93 record. Lawther's first team posted a 6-4 Eastern Conference mark after a 0-10 league slate the previous year. His 1942 team went 18-3 and advanced to the NCAA East Regional, defeating Big Ten champ Illinois.

Lawther had a great running feud with animated Pittsburgh coach Doc Carlson, who despised the zone which Lawther favored. When the two teams met Jan. 15, 1944, in the Steel City, Pittsburgh froze the ball and the resulting 15-12 Penn State win grabbed national headlines. Great anticipation surrounded the rematch as Carlson attacked the Lions' zone and lost, 35-29.

In 10 seasons at Westminster, Lawther's teams compiled an impressive 166-35 mark. His most memorable moment coaching the Titans came on Dec. 29, 1934, when he guided them to a 37-33 win over undefeated St. John's in the first college basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

PSU's wartime coach, Lawther was elected to the NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame in 1962 and is a member of the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. Lawther's winning percentage (317-127, 71.4 percent) still ranks among the top 50 all-time in

NCAA Tournament: 2 (4-3)
1954 FINAL FOUR

Munhall, Pa., native Elmer Gross served as John Lawther's assistant for four years and assumed the head coaching position from Lawther following the 1948-49 season. Captain of Penn State's 1942 NCAA team, Gross directed the Nittany Lions to an 80-40 record and two NCAA Tournament berths. He used Lawther's sliding-zone defense and added a fast-break offense which saw the Nittany Lions top 1,000 points for the first time in 1950.

His 1954 squad, paced by All-America center Jesse Arnelle, placed third in the NCAA Tournament, finishing No. 9 in the final AP poll. The Lions shocked eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ended Notre Dame's 18-game winning streak to advance to Kansas City for the Final Four. Gross was praised for masterful use of his bench and a full-court press which confused tourney opponents. Penn State has had two teams finish in the nation's Top 10 (1942: No. 10 Dunkel Index) and Gross was a key figure on both.

A World War II Purple Heart veteran, Gross was wounded in 1944, following one of the early amphibious landings on the coast of France. He returned to PSU as a graduate assistant coach in 1945 and earned his master's degree in 1947. He was the first coach in NCAA tourney history (1952) to also have

His teams ran off a string of 15-5, 16-7, 20-4 and 18-6 records between 1963 and 1966.

In 1962, Egli presented the sliding zone defense at the National Association of Basketball Coaches convention in Louisville, Ky. Four years later, he was installed as the fourth vice president of the NABC. His book, Sliding Zone Defenses for Winning Basketball, still is used by many coaches. His teams posted back-to-back records of 17-8 and 15-8 in 1972 and 1973 respectively, behind Brooklyn native Ron Brown. He coached Penn State through 1977-78.

Bach served as Henry Iba's assistant at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, when the U.S. lost the controversial title game to the Soviet Union. Following a stint as head coach of the Golden State Warriors (1983-86), he served as an assistant coach to Phil Jackson and the three-time NBA champion (1991-93) Chicago Bulls. He left Penn for Oregon in 1971 and in six seasons in Eugene guided the Ducks to a 113-81 mark and three NIT appearances. He was the NABC District 3 Coach of the Year that season after the Lions were 21-7 that season, finishing a school best 12-6 in Big Ten play.

In 1997-98, Dunn guided Penn State to an 8-8 Big Ten finish and a superb post-season run that culminated with a spot in the NIT final. He became the fastest coach in Penn State history to reach 50 career wins as the Lions ended the year 19-13. Two years later, Penn State advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and once again earned a trip to Madison Square Garden for the NIT semifinals. The Nittany Lions went 19-16 that season.

The 2000-01 season was a special and historic one for Penn State as the Nittany Lions again advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State, the No. 7 seed, downed No. 10 Providence in the first round before shocking No. 2 seed North Carolina in the next round. Perhaps the biggest win in school history, the victory vaulted Penn State to its first-ever appearance in the 'modern day' NCAA Sweet 16. The Lions ended that campaign 21-12 and earned a postseason top-25 ranking (No. 25 Coaches Poll). He resigned on March 17, 2003.

He finished his career at No. 6 on the all-time scoring list with 1,310 career points, the second-most by a Lion in less than four seasons behind D.J. Newbill, and had 38 double-doubles. He is one of just five players to post at least 1,300 points and 700 rebounds on their career at Penn State. He held the Nittany Lions' top spot in career blocks with 191 following his playing days in the Blue & White.

JESSE ARNELLE

F / 6-5 / NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

Jesse Arnelle holds the mantel of the greatest Nittany Lion basketball player of all time. Penn State's all-time leading rebounder (1,238) and only first-team All-American, he held the school's career scoring mark (2,138) for 56 years and owns Penn State records with career averages of 21.0 ppg and 12.1 rpg. Arnelle still holds six career records, six season records and three game records at Penn State, among them: most points in a half (30), field goals in a game (20) and rebounds in game (27).

Arnelle is the only Nittany Lion to be named a first-team All-American, earning the honor from the Helms Foundation in 1954. He was also named second-team All-America by Helms in 1955, third-team All-America in 1952 by Helms and Colliers and honorable-mention All-America by the Associated Press and UPI in 1954 and 1955. Arnelle was also named to the All-Pennsylvania team from 1952-55.

He posted Penn State season-record numbers of 26.1 ppg and 15.3 rpg during his senior campaign and is the only Lion to lead Penn State in scoring and rebounding in four straight seasons. He led the Lions to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including Penn State's only Final Four appearance, and highest final season ranking of No. 9 (AP) in 1954.

Arnelle holds Penn State's all-time NCAA Tournament scoring record with 202 points in his record three NCAA trips (he shares the mark for appearances with Ron Weidenhammer, 1952, '54, '55). He was named MVP of the 1954 NCAA East Regional and to the 1954 NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team. Arnelle's four career 40-point games, including a career-best 44 vs. Bucknell in 1955, are the most in Penn State history and he posted five of Penn State's top six single-game scoring marks, including a Penn State record 15 games of 30 points or more.

His 93 career NIT points rank fifth all-time.

Pickett's All-America season made him Penn State's first men's basketball All-American in nearly 70 years and helped lead Penn State to its first NCAA Tournament and Big Ten Tournament Championship game appearances since 2011 and first NCAA Tournament win since 2001.

The point guard ranked top 15 in the nation in assists per game (6.6 – fifth) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.89 – 13th) in 2022-23 while setting the Penn State single-season assists record with 243 helpers.

Pickett finished his five-year collegiate career with marks of 2,207 points (15.3 ppg), 780 rebounds (5.4 rpg), 841 assists (5.8 apg), 178 steals and 115 blocks after three seasons at Siena and two at Penn State. The Rochester, N.Y. native is the only Division I men's basketball player since at least the 1985-86 season to have accumulated career marks of 2,000+ career points, 700+ career rebounds and 800+ career assists. He tallied 1,068 points, 407 rebounds and 378 assists through just 68 games in a Penn State uniform, reaching his 1,000th point at Penn State in just 65 games.

Pickett was selected in the second round of the 2023 NBA Draft with the 32nd overall pick by the Denver Nuggets. Pickett became the highest-drafted Nittany Lion in the modern era of the two-round NBA Draft, which dates back to 1989. Calvin Booth (2nd round, pick 35, Washington) was the previous highest pick in modern Draft history.

JOSH REAVES

G / 6-5 / FAIRFAX, VA.

One of the most versatile players in Penn State basketball history, Josh Reaves completed his career with 1,079 points, 540 rebounds, 250 steals and 310 assists. Reaves' ability to impact the game on both ends of the floor provided fans with fearsome dunks and a defense that stymied opponents.

The Fairfax, Virginia, product was voted the 2019 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, and he was the first Nittany Lion named the league's All-Defensive Team twice (2018, 2019). Reaves is the only player in Big Ten history to lead the conference in steals in three consecutive seasons.

A four-year starter, Reaves possessed a double-digit scoring average his junior (10.6) and senior (10.6) seasons. He ranks second all-time in career steals (250) and holds two spots on Penn State's single-season top 10 steals list.

A human highlight reel, Reaves' dunks were often featured among SportCenter's top plays. One of Reaves' most memorable plays was his game-winning dunk vs. Ohio State in the 2018 Big Ten Tournament in Madison Square Garden on a pass delivered from sophomore guard Tony Carr.

Reaves signed with the Dallas Mavericks in summer 2019 and was with the team for the 2019-20 season before continuing to play professionally overseas.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

JARRETT STEPHENS

F / 6-7 / FERNDALE, MICH.

Penn State's first consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection and a USBWA All-Region pick in 2000, Jarrett Stephens was one of Penn State's most effective Big Ten post players. He produced 1,372 points, good for fifth on the all-time scoring list at the end of his collegiate career, and collected 703 rebounds for eighth all-time.

His 368 rebounds in 2000 rank as the second-most in a season at Penn State. He posted stellar marks of 18.8 ppg and 10.5 rpg during his senior season and set Penn State's single-season field goal percentage record hitting 64 percent from the floor in his junior year, a record that stood until the 2017-18 season.

Stephens moved to the top of Penn State's all-time career field goal percentage list with a shooting percentage of 58.3, a mark that only recently moved to the No. 2 spot. He averaged 11.4 ppg and 5.9 rpg in 120 career games. He was named to the NIT All-Tournament team after helping to lead Penn State to a third-place finish in the 2000 NIT and ranks as the Lions' all-time leading NIT scorer with 147 points, including 28 in the third-place game victory over NC State.

He is one of just six players to post at least 1,300 points and 700 rebounds in their Penn State career.

Stephens participated in the 2001 NBA Draft Combine, the first Nittany Lion to garner an invitation to the event and went on to play professionally in Europe and South America for nearly a decade.

Stephens is currently a scout for the NBA's Denver Nuggets.

LAMAR STEVENS

F / 6-8 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Lamar Stevens returned for his senior campaign to lead the 2019-20 Nittany Lions to 21 wins, 11 Big Ten Conference wins and their first Associated Press poll ranking since 1996. Stevens helped position Penn State for an NCAA Tournament berth as the Nittany Lions reeled off a program record eight-game win streak in league play and held a No. 9 national ranking.

During his four-year career, Penn State won 76 games, most in any four-year span in its Big Ten era, and had 33 Big Ten victories, also a high mark. Included in those totals were 12 Associated Press Top 25 opponents. In his final year, the Nittany Lions captured difficult road wins at Michigan, Nebraska, Michigan State and Purdue as well an epic battle vs. No. 23 Iowa at The Palestra.

A two-time first-team All-Big Ten Conference selection and NABC and USBWA All-District pick, Stevens started all 135 games in his career with 115 double-figure scoring games and 4,532 career minutes played. He set the Penn State mark for career field goals with 801 and held two spots on the single-season list for baskets made. Stevens stands in the Penn State career top five for rebounds (875), blocked shots (127) and free throws made (519) and tied for eighth with 16 double-doubles.

Stevens was one of only two Nittany Lions in program history, Jesse Arnelle the other, with more than 2,000 career points and 800 career rebounds. With the cancellation of the Big Ten Tournament due to the COVID-19 pandemic, his career came to an end with 2,207 points, ranked No. 2 on the program's all-time scoring list.

Stevens was honored as Penn State's 2019-20 Male Student-Athlete of the Year and named to the Senior CLASS All-America second team.

Stevens played with the Cleveland Cavaliers from 2020-23. He spent the 2023-24 season with both the Boston Celtics and Memphis Grizzlies.

MIKE WATKINS

F / 6-9 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Mike Watkins completed his career as one of only three Nittany Lions with 900 (953) career rebounds, second-all-time, and 1,000 career points (1,169). One of the most effective rim protectors in Penn State history, his 265 career blocked shots rank second on PSU's all-time list and he also joined the company of other big men on that Big Ten Conference career top-10 list.

Selected to the 2018 Big Ten All-Defensive Team, Watkins also made his mark on the offensive end for the Nittany Lions. He averaged 12.1 points per game during the 2017-18 season and connected on 68.5 percent of his field goal attempts. While that single-season mark ranked second on the Big Ten chart, his 70.0 percent in league games was the top figure that year and stands third in Big Ten history.

Watkins made an introduction as a freshman, swatting away 90 shots during 2016-17 and setting the Big Ten Conference Tournament single-game record with eight (2017). His 59.0 percent field goal percentage that year rose to the top of the Penn State career chart and he completed his career in the same spot (59.7 percent).

For his four-year career, Watkins had 33 double-doubles, second-highest total all-time, which included freshman-record eight in 2016-17. He led the Nittany Lions in blocked shots all four years, with three listings among the program's top 10, and was the top rebounder in three seasons.

In addition to his other statistical milestones, Watkins finished his career with 558 rebounds in Big Ten games, passing John Amaechi (1993-95) for the top spot. He also had the distinction of joining Jesse Arnelle as the only other Nittany Lion to collect at least 500 rebounds by the end of his sophomore season, tying Arnelle with 525.

BOB WEISS

G / 6-3 / ATHENS, PA.

A 1965 Associated Press honorable-mention All-American, Bob Weiss was not only able to find success at the collegiate level but at the professional level as well. In 1965, he was drafted by Philadelphia in the third round and went on to play for Seattle, Milwaukee, Chicago and Buffalo during a 13-year NBA career.

Weiss posted a career average of 16.3 points per game in his three years at Penn State scoring 1,091 points in only 67 games in the era of freshman ineligibility. That total was good for third all-time on the Penn State scoring charts as he never averaged less than 15.3 ppg in a season.

Weiss' 38 points vs. Duke in 1965 still stands tied for the sixth-best single-game scoring mark in PSU history. A 1965 All-Pennsylvania selection, Weiss was a three-year starter who helped lead Penn State to a 51-16 record in three seasons, including a 20-4 mark and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1965.

A member of the 1966-67 Philadelphia 76ers championship team, Weiss spent more than 30 years coaching in the NBA with head coaching stops at Seattle, San Antonio, Atlanta and the Los Angeles Clippers. Weiss spent three seasons in China, two as the head coach of the Shanzi Zhongyu Brave Dragons and one season leading the Shandong Lions.

In 2016, Weiss was nominated for the Tex Winter Assistant Coach Lifetime Impact Award.

Penn State led the entire first half before battling it out with the Terrapins in the second half and into overtime. The Nittany Lions surged late as Ace Baldwin Jr. converted a pair of clutch free throws to send the game to overtime, but the Nittany Lions ran out of gas in the extra frame.

Baldwin Jr. scored 16 in the game, including a perfect 9-for-9 effort form the free throw line. Kanye Clary paced Penn State with 25 points, his fourth 20-plus point scoring outing of the season. Nick Kern Jr. posted a solid line, scoring nine points with eight rebounds and four assists without committing a turnover.

- Sophomore Kanye Clary led the Nittany Lions with 25 points, his fourth outing this season with 20 or more in a game.

PENN STATE DROPS 61-59 HEARTBREAKER TO INDIANA IN BIG TEN TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND

The 11th-seeded Penn State men's basketball team fell 61-59 to sixth-seeded Indiana in the second round of the Big Ten Men's Basketball tournament on Thursday night inside the Target Center.

In a game that saw 10 lead changes and nine tie scores, it was the Hoosiers who made the game's final basket with under five seconds to play. The Nittany Lions had a look at a game-winning shot as the buzzer rang, but the attempt fell just short.

Senior Puff Johnson led the Nittany Lions with 16 points and a career-best eight rebounds. Zach Hicks connected on three triples en route to his 11 points. The junior added five rebounds and a season-best three assists. Senior Ace Baldwin Jr. filled up the box score once again with nine points, six assists, five boards, a steal, and a career-best three blocked shots.
